|--|---|
| Name of the project | «Intercultural approaches in teacher education: a comparative and exploratory study Switzerland-Kazakhstan» |
| Relevance | The processes of economic internationalization and globalization, the formation of a single economic space, the formation of a common market and the technological revolution contribute to an increase in the academic mobility of students. |
| Purpose | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. to synthesize the academic literature dedicated to this question in Kazakhstan. 2. to analyze the flows of foreign students in Kazakhstan during recent years. The country has succeeded in attracting an ever-increasing number of students from neighboring countries although the total remains small compared to Kazakh students going abroad. 3. to highlight two additional strategies used to increase internationalization in the country: employment of international scholars; and the launch of foreign campuses in Kazakhstan. |
