Brief information about the project

Name of the project	AP14869443 "The Turkic world of Eurasia (5th-14th centuries) on the base of Western historical and archival sources and the materials of Vatican" Relevance	The rarest written historical sources on the early history of the Turks and Kazakhstan in Latin, Greek and early Germanic, Scandinavian languages, available in the Vatican libraries, archives and book depositories of Europe will be implemented into scientific circulation. Here is papal correspondence, chronicles, scientific eyewitness accounts and travelers of those years, exhibits that can shed bright light on the history of the Turkic world, starting from the Saks, Huns, including the Avar and Turkic Khaganates, Desht-i Kypchak up to the Golden Horde, on the nature of international relations during a turbulent period in world history. Of value are unique documents and materials in the scientific funds and museums of the Vatican, as well as in the materials of the interiors of St.
	Peter's Basilica - the main Catholic Church in the world.
	Also, in the framework of the program it will be studied the multifaceted ways of interaction between East and West based on rare historical sources and literature in
D.	ancient and modern languages.
Purpose	Studying of the history of Kazakh statehood in the context of world history based on new, previously unknown archival sources in Latin, Greek, and early Germanic Objectives	languages, as well as other related sciences.
Objectives	- studying of the issues of the history and culture in the period of the Great Migration of Peoples on the basis of new Western European sources, archival materials, artifacts and maps collected on the result of foreign business trips;
	- researching of the multifaceted mutual influence of the Turkic world and Europe; issues of ethnic, political, socio-economic, cultural history of the Turkic peoples, primarily Kazakhstan, the prerequisites of their spiritual and historical kinship since the birth and development of the Turkic civilization, based on the identification and study of new, previously unpublished sources in ancient Germanic, Latin languages and the latest literature in modern foreign languages;
	- studying of evidence of unique written sources of the West and East on the Golden Horde, as well as manuscripts in Latin in the Vatican, along with the involvement of data from archeology, ethnology, linguistics, and other related sciences. Studying of the features of the Golden Horde from a problematic point of view, analysis, and assessment of domestic and foreign policy.
Expected and achieved results	- systematized and analyzed materials of the era of the Great Migration of Peoples based on new Western European sources, archival materials, artifacts and maps revealed in foreign business trips. Introduction into scientific circulation of data on the ethnic history and ethnogenesis of the peoples who inhabited the territory of the Kazakh steppes based on archaeological materials from ancient times to the late Middle Ages;

- cultural and historical processes in the perod of the the Great Migration of Peoples, the continuity of ancient cultures, states, and ethnic groups from the Saks to the ancient Turks and Kazakhs will be studied. The mutual influences of the Turkic world and Europe have been investigated;

- the preconditions and conditions for the emergence of states on the territory of the Kazakh steppes in the ancient period will be analyzed. The stages and features of the formation of the state-forming people have been determined;

- the interaction of Golden Horde with the neighboring countries of Europe and Asia will be studied, based on new written sources, especially the manuscripts of Vatican with the involvement of data from archeology, ethnology, linguistics, and other related sciences. Place of the Golden Horde in the system of Eurasian states and civilizations and contribution to the heritage of world culture will be researched.

The research results will be presented in the form of final comprehensive report, in at least 2 (two) articles and (or) reviews in peer-reviewed scientific journals indexed in Social Science Citation Index or Arts and Humanities Citation Index of the Web of Science database, and (or) having a CiteScore percentile in the Scopus database of at least 35 (thirty five); in at least 7 (seven) articles and (or) reviews in peer-reviewed foreign and (or) domestic publications (recommended by Committee for Quality Assurance in the Sphere of Education and Science of the Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan), monographs, manuals. It will be held international round table, seminars with the aim of scientific achievements, exchange training young personnel and involving youth in research activities.

Scientific effect: Study of the historical processes of Eurasia, starting from the era of antiquity; consideration of the place and role of the Hunnic, Turkic tribes, the Golden Horde in world history based on the involvement of new sources (Latin, ancient Greek, early Germanic, and Scandinavian) as well as the results of modern interdisciplinary research.

Economic effect: Identification of the connection between the process of development of the national economy and the revival of traditional culture. The revival of a rich culture, the best traditions of the ethnic group, the provision of a beneficial effect on the further sustainable growth of the national economy.

Social effect of the project: The effect should be to transfer unique knowledge about the centuries-old history of our country to the public through the preparation of works for the perception of a wide audience. As a result of the research, reports were made at International scientific and practical conferences, articles were published in scientific journals recommended by the Committee for Education and Science of the Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan. The textbook "Zhoshy-Kypshak Ulysynyn Madenieti" has been completed and published. Copies of materials written in Italian, German, and English were received. Text copies of books and magazines of high scientific value were created in PDF Adobe Reader format. Also, because of collecting scientific materials from the library of the Sapienza University and the National Library of Italy and on the basis of other valuable Western information, an analysis of the main aspects of the history of the Turkic world and the political history of the Golden Horde was carried out.
